In keeping with the Friendship Club's Canada 150 theme, we invite everyone to COME TO THE FORT!

Location: Fort Calgary, 750 – 9 Ave. S.E.

Date: Friday, October 13, 2017

Time: Meet at Fort Calgary at 6:45 p.m. sharp - the presentation must start on time.

Transportation to be arranged by attendees; you might consider carpooling.

Cost: $15.00 per person, tickets must be purchased in advance.

Fort Calgary is opening just for Friendship Club and guests. Staff will provide a short presentation on the history of the Mounted Police, a short video about early Calgary, and a 10 minute hilarious demonstration of the early police uniforms. Time will be provided to browse through the interesting rooms and exhibits of early Canada.

Fort Calgary is very handicap accessible, including the theatre which has comfortable seating and which is easily managed by those with canes, walkers, wheelchairs, etc. There is an extra wheelchair there. Parking is plentiful and free.

Our evening at Fort Calgary will conclude at 8:00 pm, and we will return to the church for our meeting and refreshments.
