What others had to say:

"The tour was excellent - I congratulate you for your vision and the ability to build bridges with our neighbours."

"Many years of reading about the different religions made them seem like dry, flat religions, but now they have taken on life, character, sights, and sounds. Thank you very much!"

Drama Production

April 28, 2019

The Chameleon Drama Club of St. David's United Church is proud to announce its upcoming production of Rarified Relationships: New Kid and The Hotel At the End of the Road. These two shorter productions incorporate a large cast.

In New Kid, Giles Handel arrives at his new school, Hampton Heights Junior High, and is less than enthused to be there. To his dismay, Melody Jones, a do-gooder, takes him under her wing. Giles is determined to snub her, but Randall Reeves, the school bad boy, causes him to rethink his handling of Melody. The two join forces in a desperate bid to avoid bullying.

In The Hotel At the End of the Road, a family vacation is enlivened when they meet up with another family with extraordinary interests and abilities. Talk about getting a new perspective on the world!

Our production will be held on Sunday, April 28th, following the church service and a light luncheon. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Thank you!

I want to thank each and every person who has reached out to me and my family in the face of the tragic fire that my family suffered at the beginning of February. St. David's truly feels like my family and I can't express how much your support, both through donations and friendship, have meant to my family and I as we heal from the devastation.

- Chantal Winslow (and family)
