WHAT CAN YOU LEARN FROM A PIG, A MONKEY, AND A PEASANT GIRL?

All is not well in the Kingdom of Firth. Letitia Folly reigns supreme and Rabisu is about to be loosed! All that stands in the way of chaos is a truffle-addicted pig, a manipulative monkey, and a pragmatic peasant girl. Can these three friends take on the powers that be and survive? Come join The Chameleon Drama Club's talented cast in The Dragon Factor to find out. As well, be prepared to enjoy the musical talents of Amelia and Claire Sharp.

April 30th following worship
St. David's Sanctuary
Light lunch will precede

“Maundy Thursday” Thursday April 13

Join us for a pot luck supper and a presentation of the story of “The Last Supper.”

If you are interested in participating in the short play, please contact Alison. She is seeking 16 actors to be – the narrator, Jesus, the twelve disciples, the home owner (perhaps his wife) and the mysterious man in the tan colored mantle. Speaking and non-speaking parts available.
