“Fireproof Faith”- Daniel 3- J.Gervais

When push comes to shove, how valuable to us is God’s glory?

They _____ God

(Luke 12:8-12; Psalm 116:15)

They _____ The King’s

(Acts 5:29)

They Yielded Up Their _____

(Isaiah 48:11, Romans 12:1-2)

Questions for Life Group discussion or personal reflection

-Is anything worth dying for?

-Is God’s preoccupation with his own glory arrogant?

-Can we count on God to rescue us when we are persecuted for our faith?

-Does God expect us to endanger ourselves and our families by holding to our public confession of faith in the face of persecution?

- Is there a line we need to draw as Christians? Can we participate in an anti-Christian society and culture to a point, but beyond that point we must not go? And what is that point?

- Daniel and his three friends were all in government by the time the events of chapter three happened. So... where was Daniel during all this?
