Life Group Questions

1. Take time to read through Ephesians Chapter 3:14-21 together again.
2. What challenged you the most from this message?
3. Why do we need to live lives by faith, filled by the Holy Spirit?
4. Why is it necessary to live lives rooted and established in Christ’s love if we are to see Christ work in our church?
5. Why is loving one another so essential for us as a church as we take on the challenges of transition and change?
6. What stands out to you about God’s great love? See also Romans 5:1-5
7. God wants to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine. What needs to get out of the way in our personal lives if we are to see God do his mighty work in and through us?
8. How can we hinder the work of God or limit his power and provision?
9. How have you seen God work recently in your life and the life of our church? Take time to praise God together.
10. Take time to pray as a group and personally about the Father’s Day challenge.
11. What is the next step the Lord wants you to take as a result of this scripture and message?
