BETTER-TOGETHER: Fellowship

Acts 2:42-47

- We all have a deep need for relationship & community yet we often disregard this.
  - Our culture is very individualistic.
  - Extreme individualism bothers us because we were made for community (Gen 2:18).
- There is a special word for community between disciples of Jesus: Fellowship
  - The word fellowship comes from the Greek word “Koinonia” which implies a much deeper relationship than we experience in our culture.
- The church is called to have true fellowship like that exemplified in the early church (Acts 2:42-47).
  - The early church ate together with glad and sincere hearts.
  - The early church shared with those who were in need.
- True fellowship has been exemplified in Jesus.
  - His sacrifice enables us to eat with God at his banquet table.
  - His sacrifice enables us to share in his inheritance so we could be called sons and daughters of God.
