

James: Just Do It!

1:19-27

1. What insight, principle or observation from this week's message did you find to be most helpful, eye opening or troubling? Please explain.
2. How would you describe the alternative to hypocrisy, especially that which is in the church? If we all hate hypocrisy so much, why do you think we still tend to be hypocritical?
3. Read James 1:19-20. What would change in your marriage, parenting, and workplace if you lived out this simple principle?
4. Read James 1:21. How would getting rid of moral filth and evil set up our lives as Christians to be more receptive to the word of God and the gospel in us?
5. Read James 1:22-25. If you could sum up this section into one or two words, what would you say? What is keeping you from living this simple message?
6. Read James 1:26-27. Rate your religion currently based on these verses. What could you do to improve?
7. Alvin mentioned that as Christians we can hide behind knowledge rather than living what we already know. Do you think this is true, and if so, why?
8. As you have tried to love God and others this week, how has it shown up in you? What is something you learned and did this week from your personal Bible reading?
9. Pray together.
