PRAYER MATTERS

This week we pray for Jenn Taylor, our missionary to Iquique, Chile telling people about Jesus and working with Florece - a prenatal & family counselling centre. We join Jenn in thanks for her increasing comfort in the Spanish language and also for her settling in well to life in Iquique. We pray for wisdom for the Florece team as they meet to set strategic goals and long term plans for their work as they build bridges into their community. We also pray specifically for Jenn as she begins her MA in Biblical Counselling through her mission Seminary in Peru - which means her studies are all in Spanish! We pray that language will be no barrier to Jenn's understanding as she learns to better counsel the women at Florece. Florece is closing their doors for about a month (October 8 - November 8) to move to our new location and do some additional training in peer counselling with their current volunteers. We pray that the team can find creative ways to keep in touch with their clients during this month and that their new location can reopen on schedule.
