PRAYER MATTERS

Today we pray for Brent and Shelley Weeks who work with Reach Beyond in Australia to transmit shortwave and radio broadcasts to tell people in the Asia Pacific region about Jesus.

We thank God for:

- the new shortwave schedule (one of Shelley's projects) which was successfully launched on March 31
- the efficiencies of shifting the broadcast audio playback from the studios in Melbourne to the transmitter site in north-western Australia,
- significant progress on the new integrated website and donor management system (one of Brent's projects).

We also bring the following prayer requests before God:

- that the new devotional programs in the Hindi language will impact the lives of listeners
- for a developing ministry partnership in Myanmar which will distribute shortwave radios and increase follow-up
- for the Weeks' children: Nelson and Malcolm, who started post-secondary studies in February, and for Trevor, working as a mechanic in Edmonton
- for Brent and Shelley as they make preparations for home assignment in Canada in the summer.
